Have dinner with the Custers, at Fort Abraham Lincoln State Park, July 11

General George Armstrong Custer and his wife Libby are participating in the Great Western Exposition at Fort Abraham Lincoln State Park, July 11-13, and are hosting a special dinner at the Commanding Officer's Quarters on Friday, July 11 beginning at 6:30 p.m. with a social and dinner served at 7 p.m. Tickets for the dinner need to be purchased by July 7.

The public is invited to participate in the festivities, but there is limited seating. The cost of the event is $65 per person. There will be light entertainment and a great meal to be shared with the Custers. The cooks have planned a wonderful meal consisting of roast beef with burgundy gravy, seasoned smashed potatoes, dill buttered corn, iceberg and cucumber salad, homemade breads, lemon angel food dessert, and drinks.

The ticket for this event also provides admittance to all the activities planned for the Great Western Exposition. The General and Mrs. Custer hope you will join us at Fort Abraham Lincoln for a fabulous evening on July 11.

Tickets for the dinner are available only online through www.parkrec.nd.gov. This is truly the summer event you will not want to miss.
